George Appleyard is a priest of the Eparchy of St. Josaphat in Parma (Ohio), which serves Ukrainian Catholics in a swatch running from Lake Erie to Key West. He studied basic theology with the Holy Ghost Fathers and with private tutors, and was ordained to the priesthood in 1968 at Holy Protection Monastery in New Canaan, CT, by the late Archbishop Stephen J. Kocisko, Metropolitan of the Byzantine Catholic Archeparchy of Pittsburgh. He served as superior of the experimental Monastery of Our Savior from 1970 to 1980, during which he became increasingly active in preaching retreats and lecturing on the Byzantine tradition. He has been a guest speaker at several institutes of higher learning, including Fordham and Yale. While on sabbatical in Pittsburgh, he became involved with parish ministry and, as he tells it, "never went home again." He joined the newly created Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of St. Josaphat in 1984, where he continued his parochial ministry as well as his education and retreat ministry. He served as ecumenical officer, director of the deacon training program, child protection officer, a consultant, a member of several commissions, and is still serving as vicar general of the eparchy and vicar for religious. He has published two books and many articles explaining the Byzantine spiritual legacy. In 2013, he was made an archimandrite (mitered abbot). A member of the Order of St. Lazarus, he currently serves as prelate for its American priory. Now retired from regular parochial ministry, he makes his home in a retiro in Clintonville, PA.
