A collection of 18 stories of Eastern Senegal, 10 in Malinké, taped in villages N. W. of Kédougou, and 8 in Bambara, collected in the town of Tambacounda. In a striking and attractive way these stories reveal the genius of both languages. Their richness is enhanced by their being collected in different milieux: rural, where traditional religion is observed; and urban, where Islamism dominates. A number of notes at the end of the work supplying additional information.
- 176 – JOLLIVET, Sœur Marie-Elie – A Spiritan Sister, Sister Marie-Elie JOLLIVET, has just published «Au Cœur de l'Essentiel – Libermann vous parle». (At the Heart of the Matter: Libermann speaks to you). A collection of texts from Libermann, well-chosen and well-presented. «There is no style more convincing than that of the heart; and Libermann writes from the heart», observes Father Lécuyer in the Introduction. Published in Bangui, this work cannot be too highly recommended.
- 177 – Docteurs Marcel et Marie-Claire GANDRILLE – «Le P. Jacques Laval, médecin et prêtre normand, missionnaire à l'île Maurice» (Father James Laval, Norman doctor and priest, missionary in Mauritius). A paper presented to the French Society of Medical History meeting on March 24, 1979. Taken from A HISTORY OF MEDICAL SCIENCE, No. 3, 1979.

Denville, New Jersey: Dimension Books Inc. 1978, p. 174 «Religion and Personality». A Doubleday Image Book Garden City N. Y. 1964. «The dynamics of spiritual self direction» – Dimension Books, Denville N. J. (USA), 07834 1976, 551 p. A book which offers a real approach to spirituality direction; very suitable too to solve the problems of personality growth for the individual Catholic priest, religious or layman. Useful to help guide to those having respon- sibility in counseling centers and religious Orders to direct the spiritual lives. «In search of spiritual identity» – Dimension Books, Denville N. J. (USA), 07834, 415 pages, 1975. A penetrating study of our daily attitudes and how they may be transformed into a new and higher consciousness. «The emergent self» – Dimension Books, Inc. Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, 1968, 91 pages. Each chapter flows from a question about the meaning of life in relation to the self, the self and the others, the self and community and the self and reality. «Personality fulfillment in the religious life» – Dimension Books, Denville, N. J. (USA), 1967, 338 pages. A richly balanced explanation of the meaning and fundamental structure of the active religious life. «On being yourself» – Dimension Books Inc., Denville, N. J., 1968, 191 pages. Some reflections on spirituality and originality. «The vowed life» – Dimension Books, Denville, N. J., 1968, 363 pages.
