FATHER

DANIEL BROTTIER,

C.S.Sp.

1876 – 1936

To serve means to get outside oneself, to be one's own no more. It almost means to have no more rights, only duties. It means to have no self-interest, to sacrifice everything to the general interest. It is to think, will and act for the good of others. It is to live, and sometimes to die, for the well-being of all, out of love for God.

Daniel Brottier
