Spiritus est qui vivificat: “It is the Spirit that Gives Life” is the operative philosophy of the Congregation of the Holy Spirit and reflects how the Congregation advances – as its members pursue their daily mission with an openness to the plentiful gifts and guidance of the Holy Spirit. Spiritus est qui vivificat is also the Latin motto of Duquesne University and appears on the school’s official seal and coat of arms.

Fr. Aleksandr Schrenk Ordained a Priest

On June 24, 2017, the “Rome Correspondent” for Gathered Fragments, Rev. Aleksandr Schrenk, was ordained a priest at St. Paul Cathedral. To commemorate this occasion, Fr. Alek commissioned artist Daniel Mitsui to design a unique prayer card. Specializing in medieval art, Mitsui is best known for illustrating the 2011 published edition of the Roman Pontifical as commissioned by the Vatican.

Drawing on his sense of history, Fr. Alek requested Mitsui to include four saints, which were set within a Gothic frame:

1. Saint John the Baptist (upper left) – The 2017 ordination in the Diocese of Pittsburgh was held on the feast day of Saint John the Baptist.

2. Saint Paul (upper right) – Saint Paul is the patron of the Cathedral of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Saint Paul is often invoked as a diocesan patron for Pittsburgh.

3. Saint Anthony of Padua (lower left) – The paternal side of Fr. Alek’s family has looked upon Saint Anthony as a special patron. His great-grandfather was one of the original “chapel sitters” at St. Anthony’s Chapel after its renovation was completed in 1977.

4. Saint Damasus of Rome (lower right) – Born on the feast day of Saint Damasus Fr. Alek chose him for his confirmation saint. Saint Damasus was pope from 366 to 384. He was responsible for the restoration and beautification of the catacombs of early Christian martyrs. According to tradition, Saint Damasus erected a church dedicated to St. Lawrence within his personal residence, which would become the Basilica of San Lorenzo, in Damaso, Rome. On the prayer card, Saint Damasus is depicted bearing an icon of St. Lawrence.
