First Place in the Narrative category for “We had no one and now they are here” by Mark Azzopardi. Judge’s comments: “The description is vivid. the language is active ... You manage to write a first-person account without the story being about you. This is very well done. It moved me to tears. Thank you.”

Honourable Mention in the Editorial category for “The Medium is the Message” by Fr Patrick Fitzpatrick CSSP. Judge’s comments: “A great piece linking McLuhan’s message with the best way to teach — through parables, through examples. ## Used Stamps

We still collect stamps for the missions! Stamps from any country ... in any number! They are sold to a stamp club and the money raised is used to support missionary work on the island of Mauritius in memory of Fr Graham. Stamps from countries other than Canada and the US are of the greatest value.
