Papal Blessing

The document is a formal papal blessing, enclosed in an ornate, floral-patterned border. At the top center, above the portrait, is the coat of arms of the Holy See, featuring a crown and crossed keys. The central image is a black and white portrait of Pope Francis, wearing his white cassock and zucchetto, with a large crucifix around his neck. Below the portrait, the text is written in a decorative, gothic-style font. To the left of the text is a large, ornate initial 'H'. To the right is a small circular emblem depicting a dove, symbolizing the Holy Spirit. At the bottom, there are two lines of small text: 'Ex Aedibus Vaticanis die, 28 - VII - 2017' on the left and 'Card. Giovanni D'Ercole' and 'Elemosynarius Summi Pontificis' on the right.
