COMMENTS—TITLES

C
CHARACTERIZATION OF THE LEGISLATIVE VETO: COURTS SHOULD FOCUS ON THE POWER ITSELF .................................................. 927
A CLASH OF CASES: JURY DEATH QUALIFICATION AND THE FAIR CROSS-SECTION REQUIREMENT .......................................................... 725
CONTINUING CRIMINAL ENTERPRISE STATUTE: EFFECT OF FORFEITURE PROVISIONS ON THIRD PARTIES .................................................. 171

E
ESTABLISHING A BALANCE OF POWER: THE PETROLEUM MARKETING PRACTICES ACT AND THE FRANCHISOR AS LANDLORD ........ 707

G
THE GOOD FAITH EXCEPTION TO THE EXCLUSIONARY RULE: SHOULD IT BE APPLIED IN OSHA PROCEEDINGS? ......................... 685

H
HISTORIC PRESERVATION IN PENNSYLVANIA: A SURVEY AND ANALYSIS ................................................................. 855

I
INCEST: THE NEED TO DEVELOP A RESPONSE TO INTRA-FAMILY SEXUAL ABUSE ........................................................ 901

P
THE PENNSYLVANIA REFORMED DIVORCE CODE: EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF MARITAL PROPERTY ........................................ 151
THE PERFORMANCE EXEMPTION UNDER SECTION 110(5): TIME FOR A CHANGE ................................................................. 669
PROVING DISABLING PAIN IN SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY PROCEEDINGS: THE SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION AND THE THIRD CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS ........ 491
PUBLIC SCHOOL PRAYER AND THE FIRST AMENDMENT: RECONCILING CONSTITUTIONAL CLAIMS ........................................ 465
STATE INCOME TAXATION OF MULTIJURISDICTIONAL CORPORATIONS:
AN HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE ........................................ 937
THE SUPREME COURT AS GUARDIAN OF THE ENVIRONMENT: THE Metropolitan Edison Decision in Perspective ......................... 479
WRONGFUL DEATH DAMAGES IN PENNSYLVANIA: A SUGGESTION FOR EXPANDED RECOVERY ........................................... 887