

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

1. Rev. Dr. Habil. James Massey is the Hon. General Secretary of the Dalit Solidarity Peoples (DSP) and a former Member of the National Commission for Minorities, [Government of India]
2. Most Rev. John Onaiyekan is the Catholic Archbishop of Abuja and President, Catholic Bishops' Conference of Nigeria.
3. Dr. Tinyiko Sam Maluleke is a South African Theologian; he is Professor of African Theology Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies University of South Africa at Pretoria.
4. Rev. Dr. Amaluche Greg. Nnamani is Parish Priest of St. Joseph's Parish, Itchi, Box 32 Nsukka, Nigeria. He lectures in Theology in Spiritan International School of Theology Attakwu Enugu, and in the Catholic Major Seminary Ekpoma Edo State Nigeria.
5. Rev. Dr. Alexander Ekechukwu, c.s.sp., is lecturer in Systematic Theology in the Spiritan International School of Theology, Enugu, Nigeria.
6. Rev. Dr. Nicholas Ibeawuchi Omenka, Lectures in History at the Abia State University, Uturu, Nigeria; and at the Spiritan International School of Theology Attakwu, Enugu. He is also member of the editorial board, Bulletin of Ecumenical Theology

NOTE TO CONTRIBUTORS:

Each contributor is requested to send to the Editor two copies of his/her article and a disk copy saved preferably in Rich Text Format.